The sale or consumption of alcohol at events in the Commons, Log Church Museum, or city parks will be by permit only.

The sale and consumption of alcohol will be contained within well-defined boundaries. Hours of sale and security requirements will be determined by the OLCC with input from the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office.

The sponsoring group will be responsible to maintain adequate controls to ensure that:

Servers are at least 21 years of age.

No person under the age of 21 years is served.

Alcohol will be consumed within designated areas.

No cans or bottles of alcohol will be brought into event area from outside event area.

No person will be served who appears to be intoxicated.

Security must be provided by the sponsoring group at its sole cost and expense at each point of distribution to enforce regulations and closure. Alcohol will be limited to beer and wine only, two cups per customer per visit, and dispensed in cups only - no cans or bottles.

The City, OLCC or Sheriff's Office may close the sale of alcohol at any time during event at their discretion.

The City office may require a written statement outlining how applicant is complying with the OLCC regulations and copies of OLCC service permits for anyone who will be serving.
